

Dissertations in Progress at Baptist Bible Seminary

— Old Testament —

Stephen Huebscher — The Biblical Hebrew Verbal System in the Early Persian Period: An Analytical and Systematic Study of the Hebrew Verb Forms in Zechariah and Their Functions in the Tense-Aspect-Modality System

Gerhard Rehwald — The Function of Chapter 27 in the Book of Leviticus

— New Testament —

Mark Mills — An Analysis of the Clause Patterns in the Greek Text of 1 Peter with Reference to Information Structure

Pavel Togobitsky — Middle Voice with 'Passive' Morphology in New Testament Greek

— Systematic Theology —

John Altizer — Living for the Day: A Case for Interpreting Select Day Phrases as References to the Judgement Seat of Christ

David Gunn — A Critical Examination of Kingdom Exclusion Eschatology

Troy Lohmeyer — The Dispensationalism of the 19th Century Brethren Scholar and Theologian Frederick William Grant

Ezequiel Serrato — The Soteriological Significance of the Covenant of Grant in Hebrews 1

Wayne Willis — The Mediatorial Kingdom View of Alva J. McClain

— Bible Exposition —

Paul Weaver — Archaeological Discoveries of Ancient Corinth and the Exegesis of 1 Corinthians: From Archaeology to Exegesis